Lab -07

Follow the instructions to write a Java programming using OOP concept.
1. Select your own topic to write the programming.
2. Your programming must include the concept till Exception handling (assuming that you have completed till unit-4)
3. Concepts need to be included in programming are: control statements, methods, constructors, overloading methods, inheritance, interface, overriding methods and exception handling classes.